Zombie Walk Organizers Collect Food Items for Salvation Army

MORGANTOWN – It's officially October and that means zombies will flood the streets of Morgantown, all for a good cause of course. Zombie Walk 2016, coordinated by The 'Illusive Skull Costume Castle' and 'Four Horsemen Comics and Gaming,' will be held on Saturday, October 15.

The main objective of the event is to collect non-perishable food items for the Morgantown Salvation Army. A representative from the Salvation Army will pick up all of the collections before the walk begins at 7:00 p.m.

Anyone in the community is invited to meet at the top of High Street, behind the Panera Bread, dressed in their best zombie attire. The walk is free and open to the public.

Chief Ed Preston says that the Morgantown Police Department will have three officers working during the event to take care of participants. Officers will block off intersections of the roads as walkers cross them. However, walkers will not be in the roadway during the event.

Walkers will continue down High Street and end at the Monongalia County Court House square.

The Mortuary Men will also be performing before the walk. The band describes its genre as funny crazy, with a spooky rock and rockabilly sound.
